

WARM

We met kinda late
But you were worth the wait
Cause I was so cold,
All alone in the storm
But now I'm warm

In the sunshine
Of the love that's now mine
Your smile was the light
That led me out of the storm
And now I'm warm

The years that went
And the tears I spent
Have faded to a memory
I can barely form
'Cause now I'm warm

CHORUS

Warmer than the warmest sun
I've ever felt before
You're the rainbow
From a wicked
Endless storm
Where a cloud can't form
Cause now I'm
Warm
Now I'm warm
